

All "news" outlets are calling the Charlottesville protest a "white nationalist rally" in those exact words, almost as if a memo was issued to advise all of the exact wording that should be used

submitted ago by lettersofmarque

So I'm browsing for news this morning on what happened yesterday in Virginia and I see something odd: every single "news" source is describing yesterday's protest as a "white nationalist rally". No deviation, no alternate descriptions, exactly "white nationalist rally" over and over. Who decided that? Is there a white nationalists club that declared a meeting for yesterday?

This rally, protest, meeting, gathering, or assembly could be called many things, especially since I haven't heard the protestors themselves give it a name, or at least not a name the "news" is willing to repeat. So it's odd that the description of "white nationalist rally" is repeated verbatim by every "news" source, almost like someone told them what to say. Reminds me of the old memo ordering all "news" to describe an HRC speech as "muscular". Speaking of collusion ...

Edit: After some digging for this, far more digging than should be necessary, I think I found that the event was officially titled the "UNITE THE RIGHT August 12, 2017, Charlottesville, Virginia" It used to have a Facebook page but it is no longer accessible: Unite the Right Free Speech Rally - facebook.com. Again, speaking of collusion, info from the actual organizers of this event are blacked out from any search results on Google and duckduckgo.

This exactly, "white nationalist" became a red flag when they first started calling Milo one. Really hard to defend the meeting when people are flying the Nazi flag. This rally set the whole "right" back it was exactly what the democrats wanted.

"And when the young Movement is able to force publication of its existence on the giant national TV networks, in magazines, press, etc., – it serves as a clarion call to the frustrated millions who are looking for such a movement. It is only thus that we have been able to contact thousands of people all over the world who have never before been in any “patriot” outfit, but couldn’t resist the American Nazi Party and the World Union of National Socialists.

The Swastika and Hitler, far from being millstones, are actually the answer to the eternal problem of the “right-wing” – money!

When you don’t have money for paper, meeting halls, etc., – as our side never does – you can go into the streets and march and distribute homemade handbills and picket – for nothing. The Jews go wild, attack – and you then have free use of millions of dollars’ worth of Jewish TV, newspapers, magazines, etc.! Of course, you may get bloodied and have to sit in jail awhile recuperating. But this is a small price to pay for the astonishing results."

That was yesterday's narrative until they could figure out who the suspect was. Now it's "Peaceful Protestors".

The news outlets received emails from bosses at CIA to slant this as a Nazi meeting. And he given them words to say.

There were a bunch of Nazi flags and KKK members, I don't know what you'd call it other than a white nationalist movement. Especially with chants of "blood and soil". If you really want to "Unite the Right" that isn't how to do it.

They had white nationalists, nazis, commies, antifa at the Charlottesville protest. News media went with the most eye catching group and called it that.

The torch march, Swastikas and confederate flags make it so you don't even need the volume on to get the message loud and clear.

lawlzzzz when you carry nazi flags, shout heil hitler, and your entire demographic is made up of white males in polos and cargo shirts, you're probably at a WS rally. Also, dont forget the trump cucks who were wearing their klan hoods.

You cucks are pathetic.
